Hong Kong Jewelry Magazine Interviews TGJTA's President

Mr. Suttipong Damrongsakul, President of the TGJTA gave an interview to Hong Kong Jewelry Magazine on March 3, 2017 about the upcoming Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair 2017 as well as an overview of Thailand's jewelry industry and tax incentives for jewelry manufacturing and trading in Thailand.

“The Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair is not only for Thai operators, but for the whole jewelry industry in ASEAN,” said Mr. Suttipong. “The TGJTA has a strong relationship with trade associations worldwide and we also have strong support from the Thai Ministry of Tourism in promoting Thailand as the shopping hub for gems and jewelry.”

“The Thai government has been highly supportive of the gems and jewelry industry; currently there is no VAT (Value-Added Tax) in Thailand for rough stones, gold and silver chains and machinery.”

The TGJTA is gearing up to host the Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair, Thailand's first mid-year jewelry show which will be held from June 15 to 18, 2017 at IMPACT Challenger 2, Muang Thong Thani, Bangkok, Thailand. The optimal timing will allow major international buyers to visit the fair to conduct business with quality exhibitors and view quality raw material and finished products from ASEAN+6 countries. The prestigious fair will also feature new trends and innovation in the industry, highlighting Thailand's strength as a world-class hub for gems and jewelry while providing a platform for networking across the industry.
