Opening Ceremony of the first TGJF Presided by Deputy P.M. and witness by 17 Industry Associations

'Treasure Road to the World', the Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair 2017 (TGJF) will attract domestic and international exhibitors, as well as numerous activities from fashion shows to special exhibitions.

Chairing the opening ceremony, Deputy Prime Minister General Tanasak Patimapragom voiced the government's support for Thailand's gems and jewelry industry, which is considered one of the country's top three industries with export value totalling over US$14 billion in 2016.

TGJTA President Mr Suttipong Damrongsakul expressed his gratitude for all parties involved in the organization of the Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair 2017.

Event Highlights

Cash & Carry Zone: A Jewelry Shopping Paradise

The Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair dedicated an area of the exhibition zone to the newly-introduced Cash & Carry Zone which will simplify doing business for both exhibitors and buyers. The Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) has also designated the Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair 2017 as part of Thailand Shopping & Dining Paradise 2017 in which the TGJTA has combined with many partners from credit cards, airlines, department stores, the Thai Hotel Association and the Thai Restaurant Association, to organize special shopping promotions for those participating at TGJF 2017.
