International Press Briefing: Thailand: A Treasure Road to the World

Mr Simon Chan, Vice President of the Shanghai Gems & Jade Exchange

"Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair 2017 is well-received by the AEC+6 and other countries. Participating in this event does not only create trade opportunities and effective networking, but also collectively brings together international manufacturers, traders and customers. Thus, it is considered a great opportunity to publicize and promote AEC+6 gems and jewelry so it will become well-known throughout the world."

Mr Der Ming Siow, President of the Federation of Goldsmiths and Jewellers Association of Malaysia

"The first Thailand Gems & Jewelry Fair demonstrates the commitment, strength and great relationships among our partners in making the gems and jewelry industry a true success across the world. I would like to congratulate the TGJTA for the great support from the government on various initiatives that have made the gems and jewelry business in Thailand a great success and led to this great event. Also, I would like to thank the association for the sincerity it has demonstrated to its partners."
